

Copyright © 1998

This is a satellite picture of present day Jerusalem old city, copied from the internet. Monday, June 9, 2008 I discover the city has a crack, alike the drawing of Mountain of Olive. Very visible from above only made visible today. Surely this is meant to confirm the truth of the drawings message is meant to be shared. Hard to deny once seen from above. The old city outlines the head of a man side view. What does it mean?

Paths towards God by faith.com for t-shirt free tracts

Here is the most shocking image revealed. It is present day Jerusalem the old city boundaries. A map of Old Jerusalem the artist discovered while reading the morning paper. It was the Sunday after Christmas-December 27, 1998. While the artist was reading the Atlanta-Journal Paper, He noticed the cities borders of Jerusalem all lined up with the image of the Father's Head.